

Love comes down.

Kawite (right) and her daughter fetch water from the pond built by their community in Ethiopia.

Hope builds up.

This Christmas, our church is standing in solidarity with our sisters and brothers facing the climate crisis.

Together we can help communities like Kawite's to build a life-giving pond for themselves and their families.

Thank you!

“The pond is not only for me. It has changed the life of this village.”

Kawite

This Christmas our church has raised for families still facing crisis around the world.

Together we have supported women like Kawite to build a community pond to fight the climate crisis.
