A Fresh Look at our Buildings

The minutes of the 26th February Church Meeting are now available by email

Volunteering at United Church

Volunteers are the lifeblood of our Church and there are many opportunities for members and friends to be involved. A list of the roles available from each team needing more help will be displayed on the Hall noticeboard. Please speak to a member of the team to learn more.

Church Steward

At this time each year we ask members to consider becoming a Church Steward as existing Stewards complete their term on the Church Council. This is an opportunity to be at the centre of our Church life and help lead us in our Vision. For more information contact our Minister Rev John Yarrien or a Church Steward.
